

You think you've reached the end? We haven't even started yet

.But don't worry, this is just the beginning, starting with this file

First, this challenge is a simple CTF (Capture the Flag) challenge (believe me, it's not as simple as you might think). But since you've made it this far and seen this file, I can tell you're not a simple person

:Instructions

The challenge you'll face will be complete; it doesn't have an open -1 .ending

.The challenge has multiple paths to confuse you -2

Each part of the challenge will have a unique signature to prove that -3 .it's the correct source of the challenge
